

Programs in the Park

Join us for 3 free family programs at Devil's Hopyard State Park. Sat. mornings, 10-11am, July 15, 22 & 29. Meet at the covered bridge.
No reservation needed. Rain cancels.

July 15: The Fascinating World of Insects - Insects are fascinating creatures that have developed countless adaptations to help them survive. Bring a chair or blanket and a sense of wonder for an up-close encounter with some unusual insects. Presented by: Connecticut Entomology Association

July 22: Birding for All Ages: Dust off those binoculars and join us for a native bird hunt on a short easy hike in the Hopyard. Learn how you can be a backyard bird hero! Presented by: Audubon Connecticut

July 29: Living Waters: Grab a net and your watershoes and join us as we "fish" for all sorts of cool creatures that live in the Eightmile River. Presented by: Eightmile River Watershed staff and board members.

*Additional program information will be available in July on our website www.eightmileriver.org and Facebook Page: Eightmile Wild & Scenic River Watershed
