Announcing a special book: With its dazzling shoreline, white-sand beaches, lush forests, rolling meadows, pastures, orchards, scenic rivers, pristine lakes and glorious vistas, southeastern Connecticut boasts the most picturesque and varied natural attractions in the Nutmeg State. Nowhere else in Connecticut can you stroll for miles along a wooded path to a rocky promontory overlooking Long Island Sound; swim in a secluded pond; amble through meadows; or simply luxuriate in a landscape graced by trees, fields and iconic New England stone walls — all within one region. This book celebrates the parks and preserves that will remain unspoiled in our region. Supply will be limited, so reserve your copy of “Treasures of Southeastern Connecticut: Our Proud History of Preserving Scenic Woodlands, Farms, the Shoreline and Other Natural Gems” and pay only $29.95 — that’s $10 in savings off the cover price of $39.95!
